

HORSE PRO LAUNCHED IN FRANCE

Ready to go to an equine products market and enjoy some good French food at the same time? Consider Horse Pro, to be held Oct. 16-19 at Centre International de Deauville, in Deauville, France. Among the sectors of the industry expected to be on hand are breeding, medical, equipment and fixtures, horse and rider accessories, horse transportation, press and publishing and others. To learn more about the trade show, visit www.horsepro.fr.

CORRECTION

Rodeo Cosmetics was inadvertently omitted from the photo shoot credits appearing on the contents page of the January 2006 issue of Tack 'n Togs. We thank the company for providing all the cosmetics worn by our models during the shoot.

TRUCK WINNER

Braydan Shaw (second from right) drove home from the Denver Market in a new Ford Pickup filled with Rocky Brands products, a prize he won at a bash held Friday night. On hand for the award ceremony were David Sharp, president and CEO of Rocky, Danna Shaw and Mike Brooks, chairman of Rocky. Shaw is owner of Burns Saddlery Inc. in Salina, Utah. Industry News continued on next page
