Driven by performance for horse and rider, Bates Elevation saddles explore new frontiers in saddle technology and design. Primed for precision performance, radical innovations ensure you are poised for maximum elevation.

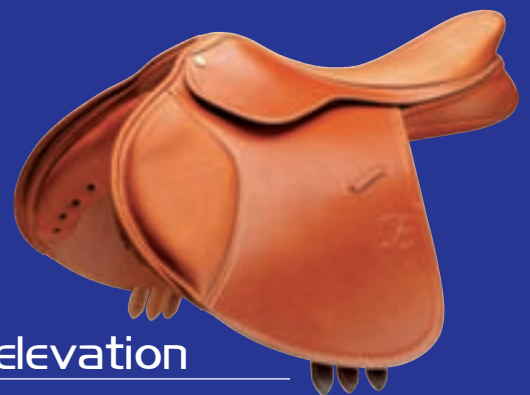

Instantaneous comfort permits total focus on your next jump, sitting you closer to your horse with constant contact through the length of your thigh, for ultimate stability.

Bates Elevation H, more traditional in appearance, gives you a competitive edge promoting accuracy of position and precision on course.

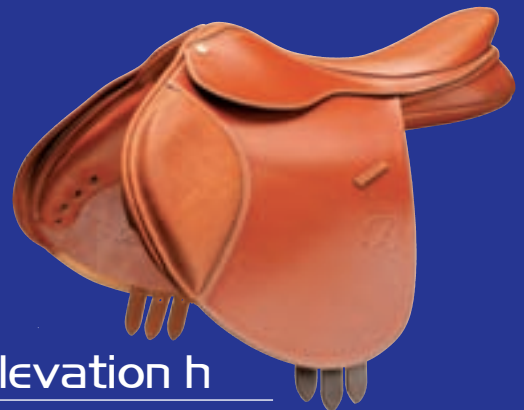

Experience the ultimate performance panel, as the revolutionary CAIR® Panel System facilitates greater communication offering the ultimate comfort for your horse. Couple this with the EASY-CHANGE Gullet System and you achieve unsurpassed flexibility for an optimal fit.

Reach new heights with the NEW Jumping saddles from Bates ... the bar has been raised.
