

Latigo's sports apparel designers offer a line of riding apparel which pairs leather with Lycra fiber. Latigo product designer, Elizabeth Israel, is an avid cyclist and dressage rider and seeks to bring the high tech fit and functionality of the cycling world into riding apparel. The Latigo Performance Hoody is made with 100-percent Tactel with a slightly longer cut for a flattering fit. Hidden front zip pockets and perforated side panels are featured on this hoody.

www.latigoequestrian.com

Playful designs on this kids' Pony Argyle T-shirt and Issential riding tights from Irideon Riding Wear make it an eye-catching outfit. The soft, cotton/spandex-blend T-shirt is tagless and has a longer, fitted silhouette. The tights are durable and practical with added flash on the sides. They are made from four-way stretch material, chamisoft knee patches and gripper elastic at the ankle. T-shirt available in sizes XS-XL in colors crocus or tulip and the tights are offered in colors midnight with crocus or slate with tulip, sizes XS-XL.

www.toklat.com

The Kyra K Active Vera Knit features a full zip and graphic stripe detail around the neck and cuffs. This garment is lightweight and made from cotton. All of the pieces in the Active collection are designed to be mixed and matched together. Kyra K makes their clothes with attention to detail and high-quality materials that feel good in and out of the saddle.

www.kyrak.com